

LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF

Important update: Final drop-off date for warehouse in New Windsor, Maryland

The quilt & kit warehouse in New Windsor, Maryland, will remain open until Monday, November 10, 2025.

The Quilt & Kit Ministry continues to thrive, delivering the quilts and kits you lovingly assemble to neighbors in need around the world near and far — as they always have. Your generous contributions remain a vital part of this mission, ensuring comfort and hope reach those who need it most.

You may bring boxed quilts and kits to the New Windsor warehouse until November 10, 2025. After that date, the Church of the Brethren will cease its warehouse receiving and processing operations in New Windsor.

What happens next?

LWR will consolidate its warehouse operations to one location in South St. Paul, Minnesota. Groups previously using the New Windsor site will need to deliver their donations to designated Ingathering churches in the surrounding areas.

To help with the transition, new Ingathering sites are being added in Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Delaware.
